

Teufelberger Ambassador

Passion for trees has no borders.

We at TEUFELBERGER believe in people who follow their passion and live their dreams, because we are the same. We love what we do and want to share our knowledge with you to make being an arborist easier and safer.

That's why we started the TEUFELBERGER Ambassador program to support this goal. A team of established arborists and newcomers from all over the world unites under the TEUFELBERGER brand. They represent TEUFELBERGER at tree climbing competitions, share their expertise with the community and spread their passion – because passion for trees has no borders.
